

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
THE STATE OF NEW YORK and ERIC
GONZALEZ,

Plaintiffs,

19 CIVIL 8876 (JSR)

-against-

JUDGMENT

U.S. IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS
ENFORCEMENT, et al.

Defendants.

-----X

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: That for the reasons stated in the Court's Opinion and Order dated June 10, 2020, the Court grants Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment with respect to Counts One and Two, and, as a direct result, is obligated to also grant Plaintiffs' requested injunctive and declaratory relief; Specifically, the Court declares ICE's policy of courthouse arrests, as now embodied in the Directive, to be illegal, and hereby enjoins ICE from conducting any civil arrests on the premises or grounds of New York State Courthouses, as well as such arrests of anyone required to travel to a New York State courthouse as a party or witness to a lawsuit.

Dated: New York, New York
